By-Laws of the ASSOCIATION OF ALABAMA
TAX ADMINISTRATORS

ARTICLE I

Name

The official name of the organization shall be “The Association of Alabama Tax Administrators”

Article II

Purpose

The purpose of the Association shall be to bring together by association, communication and organization public officials who administer the ad valorem tax laws of Alabama; to provide for the exchange among the members of the Association of such information, ideas, techniques and procedures relating to the performance of their duties pursuant to the ad valorem tax and license tax laws and regulations of the State of Alabama, and to enhance the knowledge and improve the skills of the members, to elevate the standards of service to the public in the performance of the members’ duties and responsibilities, and in conjunction with similar associations to develop, establish and secure a high standard of conduct and cooperation in the performance of such services, and in general, to promote improvements in the administration of the ad valorem and license tax laws of the State of Alabama to increase the quantity and quality of the services and contributions which the members make to the public and to their communities, state and nation, and to promote improvements in the working conditions of their employees.

ARTICLE III

Membership

Section 1. General. This association shall be the sole judge of the qualifications of a prospective member for membership in the association, and as well of the continuing qualifications of its individual members.

Section 2. Classes of membership. There shall be three classes of membership in the Association: (1) active and (2) honorary/retired and (3) associate member. Active members shall be those members who are presently holding office and serving as an official charged with the assessing and collecting of ad valorem taxes. Honorary/Retired shall be former active members of the Association who have retired or been appointed supernumerary tax officials, or who are no longer active, but are eligible for retirement or supernumerary status except for age. Honorary/Retired members shall pay no dues but shall have all the rights and privileges of an active member except the right to vote and hold office in this Association, Associate members are non-voting members of the Association. Additional classes of membership may be created by a majority vote of the members present and voting at any meeting of the Association at which a quorum is present.

Section 3. Eligibility for membership. Every duly elected or appointed Tax Assessor, Tax Collector, Revenue Commissioner and License Commissioner (which shall be construed to include every duly appointed assistant Tax Assessor, Tax Collector, Revenue Commissioner and License Commissioner operating full time in the assessing or collecting of Ad Valorem property taxes in the branch of the Court House in any county) or other person serving in an elected or appointed capacity and charged with the assessing and collecting of ad valorem property taxes, shall be eligible for membership in the Association provided; however, that before such person can become a member, he/she shall have been favorably passed on by the membership committee of the Association. Any such person whose name is submitted to the Membership Committee and who fails to receive a majority vote in favor of his membership shall not be eligible for membership. Likewise, persons or entities in other classes of membership shall be eligible for membership upon approval by a majority of the Membership Committee.

Section 4. Termination of membership. The Membership Committee shall have the authority to expel any member of this Association; provided, however, that the expelled member shall have the right to appeal this action to the general membership of the Association at its next meeting. Failure to pay annual dues within ninety (90) days of the date due shall result in automatic suspension of the delinquent member and removal of his/her name from the Association membership directory and all communication lists. However, a delinquent member may be automatically reinstated upon payment of dues within ninety (90) days after they first become delinquent. Thereafter, a suspended member may be reinstated to membership only upon approval of the membership committee in the same manner as new members are initially approved.

ARTICLE IV

Governance

Section 1. Organization. The governing body of this Association shall be the officers, immediate past president, and the Board of Directors, consisting of said officers and one director from each of the Congressional Districts of the State of Alabama, as hereinafter provided. The day to day operations of the Association shall be conducted by the officers, consisting of the President, President-elect, Secretary, and Treasurer.

Section 2. (a) Board of Directors. The initial Board of Directors to serve under these by-laws shall be the members of the Executive Committee appointed by the president following the elections held at the Association's Annual Meeting in June 2001. Upon adoption of these By-Laws said members of the Executive Committee shall become members of the Board of Directors and shall serve until the successor Board of Directors is elected pursuant to these By-Laws at the annual meeting in July 2002. The terms of the Directors designated in the Articles of Incorporation of this association shall terminate upon adoption of these By-Laws, and the Executive Committee shall cease to exist.

(b) Commencing with the elections to be held at the annual meeting in June of 2002, the Board of Directors shall consist of one member from each of the Congressional Districts of the State of Alabama, to be elected by the membership each year at the Association's Annual Meeting. Each of the directors shall serve a two-year term, provided, however, that the Directors initialed from the 2nd, 4th, and 6th districts shall serve a one-year term. In addition to the above, the officers and the immediate past president shall serve as an ex-officio voting member of the Board.

(c) At the business session of each Annual Meeting the Nominations Committee shall present to the membership a recommended slate of candidates to be elected at such meeting as the officers of the Association for the coming year and to fill vacancies on the Board of Directors. Following the report of the Nomination Committee, other candidates, if any, may be nominated from the floor. A majority vote of the active members present and voting shall be necessary to elect each officer and director. If no nominations are made from the floor, the entire slate of candidates recommended by the Nomination Committee may, on motion made, be elected by acclamation.

(d) Any vacancy occurring as a result of the death, incapacity or resignation of an elected officer or director of the Association shall be filled by the Board of Directors, and any officer or director so appointed to fill such vacancy shall serve until the end of the term in which the vacancy occurred.

(e) In carrying out the duties and responsibilities to govern the Association, the Board of Directors shall have and exercise all of the powers granted to nonprofit corporations by the Alabama Nonprofit Corporation Act, as amended from time to time by the Legislature, including but not limited to the power to hire and terminate one or more employees or independent contractors to assist the officers and Board in the day to day operation of the Association.

Section 3. Quorum. A majority of the Board of Directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

Section 4. Meetings. Meetings of the Board of Directors shall normally be held in person, but if deemed prudent and necessary by the President, they may be held by teleconference, fax or email.

Section 5. Officers. The following officers shall be elected by the membership at its Annual Meeting to serve a one-year term or until their successors are duly elected and installed: President, President-elect, Treasurer and Secretary. The duties of the officers shall be as follows:

PRESIDENT. The President shall preside at all meetings of the Association and the Board of Directors and Executive Committee. He/She shall be the chief executive officer of this Association and shall exercise such executive and appointive powers as the Bylaws, parliamentary usage and custom dictate or as may be imposed by the Board of Directors. He/She shall be an ex-officio member of all committees, except the Executive Committee, without the right to vote.

PRESIDENT-ELECT. The President-Elect shall assume the duties of the President upon his/her request or When absent and shall succeed to the office of President upon the termination of the President's term and election of new officers at each annual meeting, or upon the resignation, inability or refusal to act, or death of the President. He/She shall be ex-officio member of all committees, except the Executive Committee, without the right to vote.

TREASURER. The Treasurer shall collect and receive all dues, fees and assessments from the members of the Association, and all monies due and payable to this Association from any source. He/she shall make disbursement of any monies or funds in his/her possession or control only in accordance with the Annual budget of the Association or with approval of the Board of Directors. He/she shall make and preserve proper books of account and keep an accurate account of the finances of this association, including a detailed record of all receipts and disbursements. At the request of the President or Board of Directors he/she shall surrender his/her books of account for examination by the President or the Board or for auditing by an auditor selected by the board. All funds of the Association shall be invested bearing accounts selected by the treasurer, or in accordance with an investment policy adopted by the Board.

SECRETARY. The Secretary shall keep minutes of all the proceedings of the members of the Board of Directors and shall maintain a record of names and addresses of the members of the association. He/she shall prepare and send to the members of this association notices of any and all Special Meetings of this association and other such notices as may be required by these Bylaws or as may be directed by this association, its President, the Board of Directors, or the Executive Committee. He/she shall perform all the duties ordinarily required of, or customarily performed by, a Secretary, and such other duties as the President of Board of Directors may direct.

Each of the officers of the Association shall perform such other duties as may be prescribed from time to time by resolution of the Board of Directors.

Section 6. Committees. The following committees shall be appointed by the President at the beginning of his/her term, and the members thereof shall serve for one year, but may be re-appointed by a succeeding President or Presidents.

a. SITE SELECTION COMMITTEE. The Site Selection Committee shall be composed of as many members as the President deems necessary and shall always include the Treasurer. It shall be responsible for investigating and recommending to the members suitable sites for future meetings, and for negotiating contracts with the host properties.

b. CONVENTION AND ENTERTAINMENT COMMITTEE. This committee shall be composed of as many members as the President may deem necessary, and their duties shall be to arrange the program of each convention, see that all delegates are properly registered and provide speakers and entertainment for the convention.

c. RESOLUTIONS COMMITTEE. This committee shall be composed of five (5) members of this Association and will be responsible for preparing and presenting memorial, congratulations and appreciation resolutions for the Association.

d. PUBLICITY COMMITTEE. The Publicity Committee shall be composed of as many members as the President deems necessary and shall be responsible for the public relations and Image of the Association.

e. PUBLICATIONS COMMITTEE. The Publications Committee shall be composed of not less than five (5) members appointed by the President and shall be responsible for publishing the Association's newsletter and/or any other written publications of the Association.

f. BY-LAWS COMMITTEE. The By-Laws Committee shall be composed of a chair and four (4) Members and shall make recommendations to the Board for amendments to the By-Laws as needed.

g. LEGISLATIVE COMMITTEE. The Legislative Committee of the Association shall be composed of as many members as the President may deem necessary. Their duties shall be to recommend all legislation to the Association membership that is to be presented to the Legislature in the name of this Association and to negotiate its passage. When a legislative bill or rule is proposed that would affect the Association, the chair of the legislative committee will call the legislative committee into session to respond to the bill or rule in the most efficient manner. At the next call of the Association to convene, the Chair of the legislative committee shall make a report to the President and full body of the association of actions taken and results of such proposals.

h. MEMBERSHIP COMMITTEE. This committee shall be composed of as many members as the President may deem necessary. All applications for membership into the Association, along with dues for one (1) year, shall be accepted and passed on by this Committee before the applicant is accepted as a member of this Association. Following the Annual Convention each year, a list of all the members, including Honorary/Retired Members of this Association, shall be mailed to members of this Association prior to October 1.

i. NOMINATING COMMITTEE. The Nominating Committee shall be composed of the three (3) most recent Presidents of the Association able and willing to serve, plus two (2) additional members of the Association appointed by the current President. The two (2) additional members appointed by the current president may be members of the Board of Directors or members at large.

j. EDUCATION COMMITTEE. The Education Committee shall be composed of six (6) Members of the Association: a Chair, one from each of the four (4) Association districts, and a Member-at-large. The Member-at-large shall be a member of this Association and the Alabama Association of Assessing Officials. Their duties shall be to promote, in cooperation with other agencies and organizations, opportunities for continuing education in those areas that promote professionalism among the members of the Association.

k. CONTACT COMMITTEE. The Contact Committee shall be composed of as many members as the President deems necessary. Its duties shall be to contact the members on matters pertaining to the Association as the President deems necessary.

l. AD HOC COMMITTEE. The Ad Hoc Committee shall be composed of as many members as the President deems necessary. Their duties shall be to inform the membership and President on any particular thing the President deems necessary. Such committees may be appointed as needed at the option of the President or as directed by the Board of Directors.

m. JOINT EDUCATION COMMITTEE. This committee shall include four members of this Association with one member from each of the four (4) Association districts to serve in an advisory role with members designated from the Alabama Association of Assessing Officials. The President shall appoint two (2) members to serve for a period of two (2) years. The new members shall join two (2) members who were selected in the previous year and are completing the remaining year of their term. The president shall appoint the members from the zones where the membership on the committee has expired. The joint members from this Association and the Alabama Association of Assessing Officials shall be a member of both organizations in good standing and shall be appointed for a period of one (1) year following consultation by the presidents of both organizations as of August 1 each year.

n. THE RULES, REGULATIONS AND STANDARDS COMMITTEE ON AD VALOREM TAXATION. The Rules, Regulations and Standards

Committee on Ad Valorem Taxation shall be composed of twelve (12) regular members of the Association. All members shall serve for three (3) years. The members shall serve staggered terms with the President appointing four (4) new members each year. The members of the committee shall meet four (4) times a year, in addition to the Association meetings. At the first meeting after the Annual Conference the members of the committee shall elect a chair, Vice Chair and Secretary for one (1) year terms. The purpose of the Rules, Regulations and Standards Committee on Ad Valorem Taxation is to act in an advisory capacity and as a liaison between this Association and any state agencies, persons or entities impacting the effective application of the ad valorem tax laws in the State of Alabama. The committee shall also provide research and direction for this association by interpreting and reviewing any existing and proposed laws, rules and regulations influencing the effective administration of tax offices in Alabama.

ARTICLE V

Meetings

Section 1. Annual Meeting. The Annual Meeting of this Association shall be held at such time and place as fixed by the site selection committee with approval of the members at the Annual Meeting. Sites of future Annual Meetings may be selected for as many years in advance as necessary to secure the desired locations.

Section 2. Winter Meeting. The Winter Meeting shall be held in January or February of each year at such a place as may be chosen by the site selection committee with the approval of the membership. The location of future Winter Meetings may be selected for as many years in advance as necessary to secure the desired locations.

Section 3. Special Meetings. Special Meetings of the members may be called by the President, or by a majority of the Board of Directors, whenever deemed necessary and advisable. Whenever there is delivered to the President or the Secretary a written request for a Special Meeting signed by 25 members of this Association, it shall be the duty of the President, or, in the case of his/her absence, disability, or refusal to act, the duty of the President-elect, to call a Special Meeting.

Section 4. Notices. Written notice of the Annual Meeting and the Winter Meeting, and of the time and place thereof, shall be mailed by the Secretary and/or Treasurer to the members at least sixty (60) days in advance of such Annual or Winter Meeting. Any business properly brought before the members at the Annual or Winter Meeting may be transacted at such meetings. Written notice of any Special Meeting called pursuant to these By-Laws, and of the time and place thereof, shall be mailed by the Secretary to the members at least ten (10) days in advance of such Special Meeting. Such notice shall state the object of the Special Meeting and no business except that stated in the notice shall be transacted thereat. In lieu of mailing, notices of meetings may be sent by facsimile, email, or other electronic means reasonably expected to be received by the members.

Section 5. Quorum. Twenty-five percent of the active members of the Association shall constitute a quorum at any Annual, Winter or Special Meeting. A majority of the members present and voting shall be necessary for the adoption of any matter voted upon at any meeting at which a quorum is present, except that amendments to these By-Laws shall require a two-thirds vote.

ARTICLE VI

Finances

Section 1. General. The fiscal year of the Association shall run from July 1 to June 30. The primary revenue of the Association shall be raised by annual dues. A proposed budget shall be presented in printed form to the General Membership at its Annual Convention each year for its acceptance or rejection. An audit and/or compilation of all funds of this Association, for the fiscal year ending June 30, shall be made each year and this report shall be presented in writing to the Officers and Board of Directors prior to September 1; after which, a findings report shall be presented in writing to the membership prior to October 1. No salaries will be paid to any member of the Association for services rendered, except the Secretary and the Treasurer, whose remuneration shall be presented in the proposed budget at the annual convention.

Section 2. Dues. Annual dues for classes of membership of the Association shall be set by a majority vote of the members entitled to vote, at any meeting of the Association at which a quorum is present, provided the minimum of 30 days advance notice has been given by the Secretary to the members of any proposed change in dues, and provided that a majority of the Board of Directors recommends the change. The membership year shall begin October 1. Dues shall be deemed delinquent after December 31.

ARTICLE VII

Amendments

These By-Laws shall be effective upon approval of the initial Board of Directors established by the Articles of Incorporation and upon approval by a two-thirds vote of the members at any meeting at which a quorum is present provided at least thirty (30) days' notice that these By-Laws will be considered has been given to the membership. Thereafter these By-Laws may be altered, amended or repealed at any Annual, Winter or Special Meeting of the Association called for that purpose, provided there is a quorum present, by two-thirds vote of the members present and voting; provided, however, that a copy of such proposed amendment has been submitted in writing to the membership by the Secretary at least thirty (30) days' prior to the meeting in which the proposed amendments shall be considered by the Board of Directors, and no proposed amendment shall be submitted to the membership unless recommended by a majority vote of all members of the Board of Directors. The thirty (30) days' notice given to the membership shall specify the date and time, as near as possible, of the business session at which the proposed amendment will be considered.

ARTICLE VIII

Conduct of Meetings

Conduct of all meetings of this Association, including meetings of the Board of Directors and Committees, shall be governed by the provisions of “Robert's Rules if Order” to the extent that they are not inconsistent with these By-laws.
